Amy is playing in dramatic area, runs to shelf where Kleenex is and pulls one from box. She then wipes nose from side to side, places Kleenex in trash and goes back to play area. When adult reminds her to wash hands she goes to sink and pumps soft soap in hands and rubs hands together under running water.

10/12

Amy typically uses a tissue when her nose is runny. She blows and wipes and usually remembers to wash hands.

Excerpt from M. J.'s Daily Journal
Age: 15 months

Monday – 10/3

8:40 – Arrives at center. Smiles and says “hi.” Puts bag and jacket in his cubby.

9: 10 - M holds a cup with one hand, and with the other pushes the button of the water fountain to fill his cup.

9:45 – Outdoor playground - M. picks up a basketball and throws it up in the air using both hands.

10:00 – Playground - M goes up the climber and walks across the bridge, back and forth. He yells to others playing in the sand below the climber. Smiles and waves when they look up at him.

10:10 - Bike path - M uses the play tool to pretend to fix the bike wheels.

11:20 – Book corner - M sat in the book area looking at books for about 10 minutes. She named many things she saw and pointed to in the book, e.g., “dog...baby... toy.”

11:40 – Nap time – M goes to his cubby to get his “blankie.” He rubs his eyes, and comes to sit on my lap. He watches others, lays his head against my shoulder. I asked, “Are you ready to nap?” He holds his blankie tighter, says nothing. He walks to nap area and snuggles with blankie. Falls asleep quickly and sleep until 1:15.
